Larry C. Johnson: "The Ukrainian Army Has Been Defeated. What's Left Is Mop-Up"

Mike Whitney • March 21, 2022 • 2,200 Words

Larry C Johnson is a veteran of the CIA and the State Department's Office of Counter Terrorism. He is the founder and managing partner of BERG Associates, which was established in 1998. Larry provided training to the US Military's Special Operations community for 24 years. He has been vilified by the right and the left, which means he must be doing something right.

Question 1– Can you explain to me why you think Russia is winning the war in Ukraine?

Larry C. Johnson– Within the first 24 hours of the Russian military operation in Ukraine, all Ukrainian Ground Radar Intercept capabilities were wiped out. Without those radars, the Ukrainian Air Force lost its ability to do air to air intercept. In the intervening three weeks, Russia has established a de facto No Fly Zone over Ukraine.

US Unexpectedly Sanctions China Officials Hours After Demanding Beijing Condemn Russia

Tyler Durden - Monday, Mar 21, 2022

Apparently not content with diplomatic war on one front with Russia, the Biden administration appears ready to escalate with China following on the heels of last week's persistent accusations that Beijing was mulling cooperation with Moscow on weapons resupplies for its Ukraine operation, as well as assistance on Western sanctions evasion. Monday afternoon Secretary of State Antony Blinken announced more visa restrictions on Chinese officials related to prior charges that state authorities are overseeing the ethnic cleansing of Uighurs.

It's certainly interesting timing in terms of pulling out the the human rights card, given that throughout last week the admin's China criticisms seemed exclusively focused on its "fence-sitting" over Ukraine.

Ukraine would discuss Crimea, Donbass with Russia after security guarantees — president

TASS - 22 Mar 2022

According to Vladimir Zelensky, he is ready to discuss these issues at a meeting with Russian President Vladimir Putin

KIEV, March 22. /TASS/. President of Ukraine Vladimir Zelensky said he would be ready to discuss the issues of Crimea and the recognition of the Donetsk and Lugansk People's Republics with Russia after the Ukrainian side receives security guarantees.

"This is a very difficult situation for everyone. For Crimea, Donbass, and for everyone. In order to find a way out, you have to take this first step, which I have mentioned: security guarantees, the end of the war," he said in an interview with TV companies from European countries and from Ukraine.

US To Bring Back Pirates To Seize Russian Yachts

Tyler Durden - Monday, Mar 21, 2022

Via SovereignMan.com,

Centuries ago, whenever Kings and Queens wanted to quietly wage an unofficial war against their enemies, they issued something called a "Letter of Marque" to private sailors known as Privateers.

The Letter would legally authorize these Privateers (which was just a polite way of saying 'Pirate') to seize other kingdom's ships and cargo while at sea.

It was essentially government-sanctioned theft.

Well, the United States Congress is bringing back this practice.

"They had orders from high command to take up defensive positions on the premises of the Volnovakha Central District Hospital," said one survivor.

While the Ukrainian military took up position on the second and third floors, they came under fire by a tank. "After that their commanders had the gall to come and ask, who's here? ...They were checking if they had killed us or not."

Units of the Russian Armed Forces, DPR and LPR are still working to achieve the declared goal of the full liberation of the Donetsk and Lugansk regions.

All eyes are now on the city of Mariupol. Fierce street fighting continues there with daily progress by Russian and DPR forces. Both sides suffer casualties on a daily basis.

While clashes continue on the outskirts of the town of Ugledar which had mostly fallen under the control of the DPR and the Russian Armed Forces after a series of clashes, the Russian units are surrounding the region from the west.

As soon as the blue states began winding down Covid restrictions, the invasion of Ukraine gave us something else to panic about. It's like the origins of the Covid virus: in the early days, when most of the authorities in the press were insisting that it had natural origins, I remember thinking, "There's a Level 4 Virology lab in this city, and the press says it's a coincidence?"

No. That wasn't a coincidence, and I don't think the timing of the Ukraine invasion was a coincidence either.

I think it has to do with Mattias Desmet's theory of mass formation psychosis.

UNITED NATIONS, March 23. /TASS/. "We declared from the outset that we will not be attacking civilian facilities," Nebenzya said. "As soon as they heard this, the Ukrainian nationalists and radicals, well aware that sooner or later they will be brought to justice for the crimes committed over the past eight years, began to use peaceful civilians as a human shield, to deploy heavy weapons in residential areas and to impede the evacuation of the population through humanitarian corridors." <https://tass.com/politics/1426501>

Ukrainian War Of Attrition: The 27 Day Of Russian Military Operations

SouthFront - 23 Mar, 2022

In the recent days, there were no reports about any strategically important successes by any side in Ukraine. On most of front lines, the Russian advance was almost stopped or slowed down by the fierce resistance of the Armed Forces of Ukraine.

Bloody street fighting continues in the city of Mariupol where the DPR mop up operation continues. According to the estimates shared by the DPR, about half of the 14.5 thousand AFU personnel are still active in the city.

Weeks after the city was blockaded, clashes are breaking out all around the city. The large industrial facilities of the Azovstal are still under the Azov control. Chechen forces deployed to take control of the plant are yet to report any victories. They are likely waiting until the nationalists run out of supplies and then will launch a larger offensive.

As the New York Post reports “It’s not until the 24th paragraph that the story mentions emails involving Hunter Biden and his associates in those deals, followed by these two sentences: “Those emails were obtained by The New York Times from a cache of files that appears to have come from a laptop abandoned by Mr. Biden in a Delaware repair shop. The email and others in the cache were authenticated by people familiar with them and with the investigation.”....

According to the Gateway Pundit, Hunter Biden’s investment company Rosemont Seneca Technology Partners (RSTP) funded San Francisco-based Metabiota as early as 2014. RSTP’s website also showed Metabiota as one of the companies it has invested in. Metabiota then partnered with Black & Veatch (B&V), a company with ties to the Department of Defense, to set up the labs in Ukraine.

He also pointed out that the Pentagon's experiments were not just limited to the development of dangerous infectious diseases.

For instance, a pharmaceutical company contracted by the US military, according to the said document, was working with the Ukrainian Ministry of Defense to test unregistered medicines specifically on Ukrainian service members.

"It Doesn't Work" For Us - Austrian Chancellor Rejects Biden's Pressure To Boycott Russia Energy

Tyler Durden - Thursday, Mar 24, 2022

As President Biden struggles to convince America's European allies to bite the bullet and agree to tougher sanctions on Russian energy during his trip to Brussels (where he is participating in meetings with NATO, the G-7 and the EU), Austrian Chancellor Karl Nehammer offered the latest example of why this this will likely be a futile effort on Biden's part, as uniting Europe in opposition to Russia simply isn't feasible given its dependence on Russian oil and gas.

Speaking Thursday, Nehammer denied reports in the Austrian press claiming his government was in talks to agree to an embargo on Russian energy. The reality couldn't be further from the truth he said, adding that talk of a Russian energy boycott is "unrealistic and wrong".

"It doesn't work. Austria gets 80% of its gas from Russia." What's more, rumors of a boycott are harmful in and of themselves, because they serve to drive energy prices higher.

France opens inquiry into alleged torture by Interpol's Emirati head

PressTV - Friday, 25 March 2022

Anti-terror prosecutors in France have initiated a preliminary inquiry into torture and acts of barbarism allegedly committed by Emirati general Ahmed Nasser al-Raisi, who currently heads the Interpol.

The inquiry follows a legal complaint by an NGO that holds Raisi responsible for his role as a high-ranking official at the United Arab Emirates interior ministry for the torture of an opposition figure.

Raisi last November became the president of the international crime-fighting agency, Interpol, after generous funding from the UAE for the agency based in Lyon.

Iran slams looting in Syria, urges immediate withdrawal of foreign troops

PressTV - Friday, 25 March 2022

Iran's permanent ambassador to the United Nations (UN) has denounced the continued looting of Syria's natural resources, crude oil and agricultural products, stating that all foreign occupation forces, including American troops, must pull out of the war-ravaged country immediately and unconditionally.

"Syria's sovereignty and territorial integrity cannot be endangered in the name of fighting terrorism. Therefore, all occupying and uninvited foreign forces, including American troops, must leave the country immediately and without any preconditions," the Iranian diplomat noted.

Former US president Donald Trump admitted on several occasions that American forces were in Syria for its oil.

British intelligence operative's involvement in Ukraine crisis signals false flag attacks ahead

Shadowy UK intel figure Hamish de Bretton-Gordon was at the forefront of chemical weapons deceptions in Syria. Now in Ukraine, he's up to his old tricks again.

With Washington and its NATO allies forced to watch from the sidelines as Russia's military advances across Eastern Ukraine and encircles Kiev, US and British officials have resorted to a troubling tactic that could trigger a massive escalation.

Following similar claims by his Secretary of State and ambassador to the United Nations, US President Joseph Biden has declared that Russia will pay a "severe price" if it uses chemical weapons in Ukraine.

The warnings emanating from the Biden administration contain chilling echoes of those issued by the administration of President Barack Obama throughout the US-led dirty war on Syria.

NATO Wants a Ground-War in Ukraine

Mike Whitney • March 24, 2022 • 3,500 Words

Why is NATO sending more lethal weaponry to Ukraine? Didn't Putin say that pouring arms into Ukraine would increase the likelihood of war?

Yes, he did, but the US and NATO continue send more shipments anyway. Why?

And why does Ukraine need more weapons?

Could it be that Ukraine's 600,000-strong military is collapsing like a trailer park in a hurricane? Is that it? Is that why NATO had an emergency confab in Brussels on Thursday to restate their support for a NATO-trained army that has not successfully launched even one major counteroffensive against the Russian military?

The Retreat of the Oligarchs

The Great Russian Restoration VI

The police operation in the Ukraine is at a standstill at the moment except in a few areas along the various fronts. The Russian army slowly, gingerly advances into the cities, cutting off sections controlled by the enemy like a kolbasa, piece by piece.

Civilians fleeing the city of Mariupole have to run the Azov gauntlet with many refugees sharing accounts of being shot at and terrorized. The "nats-bat" fighters aren't keen on letting their hostages escape.

Azov, by the way, is largely composed of Russian-speaking easterners from the Dnipropetrovsk and Donbas regions. An unusually high percentage of them appear to be former prisoners or career criminals and their use of satanic and Nazi imagery begins to make more sense when you factor this in.

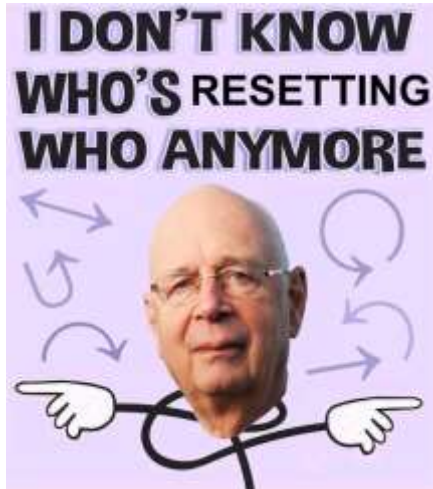

This all, of course, makes perfect sense if you read the previous article on the Ukrainian swamp, but jars with any set narrative promoted by one side or the other. Make of this factoid what you will.

But civilians aren't the only ones trying to escape the conflict.

Von Greyerz: All Hell Will Break Loose For Humanity

Tyler Durden - Friday, Mar 25, 2022

Authored by Egon von Greyerz via GoldSwitzerland.com.

We are now at the end of an era of economic and moral decadence in a debt infested world built on false values, fake money and abysmal leadership. All hell will break loose.

It is the buildup of a massive debt mountain which has given the Western world a false comfort based on false values.

As I have pointed out many times, the US has increased its debt every year since 1930, with a couple of minor exceptions in the 1950s and 1960s. The Clinton surpluses in the late 1990s were fake and in fact deficits.

In history, when there is undue economic pressure, starting wars is popular and often felt necessary. It is convenient to blame the war for the increasing debts.

US Strikes Deal With EU To Boost LNG Exports, Reduce Bloc's Dependence On Russian Gas

Tyler Durden - Friday, Mar 25, 2022

After EU leaders regrouped on Friday for the second day of a Brussels summit organized to allow them to discuss strategies or ratcheting up the pain on the Russian economy (which is already facing the most stringent international economic sanctions ever applied to a major world power), President Biden has confirmed that the US and EU have agreed on a new scheme to increase exports of American LNG to the Continent.

For those who aren't familiar with the mechanics of importing natural gas, the fuel can be tricky to export by ship. Unlike other fossil fuels like crude and coal, natural gas must be cooled into liquid form, packed onto a tanker, then carefully "re-gasified" at special facilities. On the other hand, the natural gas that flows through pipelines like Nord Stream 2 avoids this cumbersome process entirely.

Unfortunately for the Europeans, the new plan could take years to implement, raising the possibility of further increases in European natural gas prices.

But while the Biden Administration has generally been hostile to the American energy industry, the deal virtually guarantees new markets for American LNG, incentivizing domestic producers to expand capacity - and quickly.

SouthFront – Civilians who left the war-torn city of Mariupol through the humanitarian corridors secured by Russian and DPR forces are testifying on inhumane warfare and war crimes committed by Ukrainian nationalist forces.

Residents of Mariupol confirmed that Azov members forcibly pushed them out of their apartments and used them as firing points. Local residents say that the military retreated to civilian facilities, including schools and kindergartens.

DPR sources shared a new video showing the school that was used by the AFU and Azov militants as a military post for a week until the Russian military took control over it.

War In Ukraine Day 30: Ukrainian Army Left With No Fuel, Attempts To Counter-Attack

A month of Russian military operations in Ukraine has passed. Kiev, Kharkiv, Chernihiv, Sumy and Nikolaev are almost blockaded by Russian troops, Kherson and most of the Zaporozhye region are under the Russian control. The Ukrainian air force and air defense system were almost completely destroyed, the Ukrainian Navy does not exist anymore.

On March 25, the Russian Ministry of Defense officially confirmed that storming of Ukrainian cities is not a priority of the Russian military operation. The Russian troops enter the cities only on the territory of the DPR and LPR. High-precision weapons are used to suppress the entire military infrastructure of the enemy, the main goal is to exhaust the AFU units and force them to surrender.

"The notorious cancel culture has turned into the cancellation of culture. The names of Tchaikovsky, Shostakovich, Rachmaninov are being removed from playbills, Russian writers and their books are being banned," he said on Friday.

The president harked back to newsreels of that time when books were tossed into bonfires lit on the central squares of German cities.

Chechen Spetsnaz, led by the charismatic Adam Delimkhanov, had entered the Azov-Stal plant – the HQ of the neo-Nazi Azov battalion.

Azov was sent a last ultimatum: surrender until midnight – or else, as in a take no prisoners highway to hell.

That implies a major game-changer in the Ukrainian battlefield; Mariupol is finally about to be thoroughly denazified – as the Azov contingent long entrenched in the city and using civilians as human shields were their most hardened fighting force.

People familiar with the investigation said prosecutors had examined emails between Mr. Biden, Mr. Archer and others about Burisma and other foreign business activity. On March 25, at least three Russian missiles hit the city of Lviv. An oil depot located on Plastovaya Street and military facility were seriously damaged by the strikes of the Armed Forces of the Russian Federation.

According to the mayor, there were no victims as a result of the strikes. No civilian infrastructure was damaged.

The Russian military is widely using its Kalibr cruise missiles to strike military targets throughout Ukraine. In recent days, as a result of Russian strikes, numerous fuel depots have been destroyed. The AFU troops, including the main grouping deployed in the Donbass region, are at risk of running out of fuel in the nearest future.

Kremlin Threatens To Halt Supplies As G7 Ministers Reject "Unacceptable" Demand To Pay For Gas In Rubles

Tyler Durden - Monday, Mar 28, 2022

Update(9:01ET): Russia on Monday has issued a firm and unyielding response to G-7 ministers who had dismissed as "unacceptable" its plan to only accept ruble payments for Russian gas going to "unfriendly" nations.

Earlier Monday German Economy Minister Robert Habeck said from Berlin that the Kremlin demand for natural gas contracts to be paid in rubles is a "one-sided and clear breach of contracts" - saying the contracts must be honored under prior conditions, according to Bloomberg. "That means that a payment in rubles is not acceptable and we urge the relevant companies not to comply with Putin's demand," Habeck said. "Putin's effort to drive a wedge between us is obvious but you can see that we won't allow ourselves to be divided and the answer from the G-7 is clear: the contracts will be honored."

The Kremlin's quick shooting down of the German economy minister's comments and the G-7's stance on the ruble came Monday via a Russian lawmaker to state-run RIA Novosti:

"Russian lawmaker Abramov says G7's refusal to pay in Russian roubles for gas will definitely lead to a halt in supplies."

Elsewhere the Kremlin said it's not running a "charity" - according to TASS:

Victims Testify About Crimes Of Kiev Regime In Ukraine (Video)

SouthFront - 28.03.2022

Numerous crimes of law enforcement agencies of Ukraine have been known many years before the start of the Russian military operation in Ukraine.

Many witnesses testified that they have become victims of illegal actions of the law enforcement forces of Ukraine. Hundreds of people are missing in the Donbass region so far. There are numerous cases where innocent civilians were tortured and imprisoned for having expressed support to the residents of Donbass after the Ukrainian regime unleashed the war. Many have become victims of attempts by Ukrainian law enforcement agencies to conceal the crimes of the Kiev regime.

Pisorenko Yulia Vadimovna became one of them.

'Asymptomatic Spread' Was One of the Most Damaging Covid Claims — A Doctor Dismantles the 'Myth' in One Epic Thread

BeckerNews - March 28, 2022

'Asymptomatic spread' was one of the most subtly destructive claims about the Covid pandemic. It turned seemingly healthy human beings into potential carriers of a deadly viral contagion. It made interventions poorly backed by scientific evidence, like cloth face coverings, seem like common sense practices from a 'never-can-be-too-safe' perspective. But one doctor, Aaron Kheriaty, an M.D. and former Professor at the UCI School of Medicine and Director of the Medical Ethics Program (until the university kicked him out for refusing the 'vaccination') has decided to expose how the belief got started. This isn't to say that asymptomatic spread is impossible. It is merely to show how obscenely weak the evidence for prevalent asymptomatic Covid spread was from the very beginning. Dr. Kheriaty unveiled the thread on Twitter.

Shock: Former News Exec. Reveals the Government 'Warning' Given to Networks to Air Covid Propaganda

BeckerNews - March 28, 2022

The Covid pandemic response beginning in 2020 was one of the most sweeping cases of media propaganda in world history. Governments not only lied to the masses ("15 days to slow the spread," e.g.) and made dubious claims based on poor evidence ("mask up" to end the pandemic), but it censored media outlets and even civilians for doubting the mainstream narrative.

Some news networks must have been ordered to adhere to the government's pandemic narratives or risk serious consequences (such as losing broadcasting licenses and other reprisals).

Van Huffelen: geen sociale controle met Europese digitale identiteit

Security.nl - maandag 28 maart 2022

De Europese digitale identiteit zal niet voor sociale controle worden ingezet. Daarnaast zal er altijd een offline alternatief beschikbaar zijn en mogen overheden niet eisen dat mensen zich alleen via een digitale identiteit identificeren, zo heeft staatssecretaris Van Huffelen van Digitalisering laten weten. De bewindsvrouw reageerde op vragen van de vaste commissie voor Digitale Zaken.

"Binnen de wallet heb je zelf controle over welke data je wil delen met welk soort instanties. Ik denk dat het wel goed is om dat in het begin neer te zetten, zeker ook omdat een spookbeeld over sociale controle zoals we die in andere landen kennen, absoluut niet aan de orde is bij wat we in Europa willen", reageerde Van Huffelen. Ze voegde toe dat er ook altijd een mogelijkheid moet zijn om het offline te blijven doen.

Wat betreft het tegenhouden van de Europese digitale identiteit door de Tweede Kamer is dit niet mogelijk. "Een framework dat we in Europa maken, kan niet door één lidstaat worden tegengehouden. Die verordening wordt vastgesteld bij gekwalficeerde meerderheid. Dat zou dus moeten betekenen dat een veel groter aantal landen hier niet voor zou moeten zijn.

ABN Amro mag klanten laten betalen voor opnemen van contant geld

Security.nl - dinsdag 29 maart 2022

ABN Amro mag klanten laten betalen voor het opnemen van contant geld, zo heeft het financiële klachteninstituut Kifid bepaald in twee zaken die door klanten waren aangespannen. Klanten van ABN Amro die meer dan 12.000 euro per jaar contant opnemen moeten 5 euro per opname betalen plus 0,5 procent over het opgenomen bedrag. Voor studenten ligt de grens al op 6.000 euro.

Een van de klanten neemt elke week 300 euro contant geld op om overzicht te houden over haar uitgaven. Dat is 15.600 euro per jaar. Zij moet voor het opnemen van haar eigen geld ABN Amro 78 euro betalen. Volgens de klant is dit een buitenproportioneel hoog bedrag aan extra kosten. De klant stelt dat zij toegang moet kunnen houden tot haar eigen geld, zonder dat de bank daar extra kosten voor in rekening brengt.

NY Times: "Frustrated" Putin Could Use Nukes in Ukraine

Mike Whitney • March 28, 2022 • 2,300 Words

The New York Times thinks that Putin might use a nuclear weapon in Ukraine, but there is a flaw in the Times' reasoning. Putin has nothing to gain from a nuclear blast and everything to lose. A nuclear weapon will not help Putin win the war in Ukraine, in fact, it would further deepen Russia's isolation, strengthen the position of Russia's enemies, and create a justification for NATO to enter the war.

Only Washington stands to gain from a nuclear explosion in Ukraine because only Washington would benefit from a wider war that involved NATO.

While the U.S. government and mainstream media rightly condemn Russia's invasion of Ukraine, neither offer one iota of protest against US enabling of Saudi Arabia's horrific war against neighboring Yemen that has killed over 400,000 and puts millions at risk of starvation. The Saudis started the war 7 years ago this week by intervening in Yemen's civil war to prevent an Iranian aligned faction from becoming their neighbor. For America it represents a proxy war against the hated Iranian regime.

Ukraine War! What Is It Good For? The Nazi Agenda

Off-G - Mar 28, 2022, Iain Davis

Russia's invasion of Ukraine is technically illegal under international law. In Part 2 we discussed why international law means virtually nothing: it does not apply equally to all states and is therefore no law at all.

We also talked about why Russia also had legitimate security concerns and yet the United Nations did nothing to alleviate them.

Russia's position in the global and specifically the European energy market gave it the leverage it is using to counter NATO expansionism.

This is contrary to US interests, since the European Union could potentially threaten US dominance of the NATO alliance.

Ukraine, as the main transit hub for Russian gas supplies to Europe, was a choke point.

How Mariupol Will Become a Key Hub of Eurasia Integration

Pepe Escobar • March 29, 2022 • 1,200 Words

Mariupol, the strategic Sea of Azov port, remains in the eye of the storm in Ukraine.

The NATO narrative is that Azovstal – one of Europe's biggest iron and steel works – was nearly destroyed by the Russian Army and its allied Donetsk forces who "lay siege" to Mariupol.

The true story is that the neo-Nazi Azov battalion took scores of Mariupol civilians as human shields since the start of the Russian military operation in Ukraine, and retreated to Azovstal as a last stand. After an ultimatum delivered last week, they are now being completely exterminated by the Russian and Donetsk forces and Chechen Spetsnaz.

NEO/Intel Drop: Ukrainian War Lies Expose Frightening Reality Shift

Gordon Duff, Senior Editor - March 30, 2022

The utter insanity of the Western Media at the outset of the Ukraine War, name calling, using video game footage to prove atrocities, ploys that grew up during the War on Terror, has created a reality shift that cannot be easily corrected.

Today, tens of millions of Americans and similar numbers from NATO countries including Turkey and Canada, know there is absolutely no limit in how utterly childish and unbelievable the kind of lies their governments spread have become.

Then the truth, a terrifying truth begins to take hold.

Without Trump's relatively successful and certainly needed debunking of US media, this door may well not be open.

American scholars can no longer state where the lying began, how far it goes and to what extent long accepted "facts" written into the history books may well be not just "biased" but utterly fabricated.
